ASIANIA PARACHUTING CHAMPIONSHIPS:

ASIANIA Parachuting Championships are international events with athlete participation varying from World Champion level to developing teams.

Historically conducted in conjunction with the ASIANIA member host country's International Open event, these competitions provide a teaching and learning ground for the various skill requirements of the sport.

Jumpers can improve their competitive skills, techniques and knowledge working towards world competition, utilising experienced teams and coaches who support all experienced levels.

Judge Training Courses carried out in conjunction with the championships have increased the numbers of judges in ASIANIA countries, plus added to the skills and precision of judging at the events.

Over the years these events have had a positive and productive influence on everyone in the parachuting fraternity, including the Judges.

Judges can gain new skills and knowledge because there are special Judging Seminars conducted prior to all championships, which enables them to update, revalidate and maintain their currency.

FAI / ASIANIA Judge Training Courses: 14 Courses have been successfully conducted from 2003 – 2017

FAI / IPC support has enabled the conduction of approved FAI Judge Training Courses at China (3), Indonesia (3), Malaysia (3), Saudi Arabia (3) and UAE (2).

More than 70 members from many ASIANIA countries have participated in these courses.

ASIANIA EMAX Video Competition: 14 Competitions have been conducted to date.

ASIANIA conducts an annual Video Competition for Formation Skydiving and Canopy Formation which is conducted over a 6 (six) month period to encourage greater participation and practice in competition jumping. Originally, the video entries were sent by email or fax, now they are judged during the ASIANIA Parachuting Championships or on the internet by selected FAI judging panels.

ASIANIA SUPPORTS ALL PARACHUTING AND SKYDIVING ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED IN ITS AREAS AND WORLDWIDE.
